I am emailing you to let you know that I am AGAINST the mask mandate. I have a space inside an Antique Shop in the county. Many of our customers come from Calvert and St Marys county. When they see our signs that they are required to wear a mask, they turn around and leave. Those that don't leave complain. Did you know that we are the laughing stock of the Southern Maryland area? Do you care? I also have a space, just down the road in St Mary's County. Since there is no mask mandate, people shop there, instead of in our space in Charles County. Often I hear "when are your commisiners going to understand that we don't shop in Charles County because we are not going to wear a mask?" I totally understand that some of our residents wish to wear a mask, that is their choice. But do not require all of us to suffer, and our businesses to suffer because of it. Give US a choice and stop this madness! Karen Wagnon
