Our county and community as a whole have abided by the mask mandate for over a year now. COVID is not going away, just like the flu will never go away. At this point it should be a personal decision whether or not to wear a mask in public settings. The Commissioners of the county have done their part to try and keep the county safe for longer enough, it is now the people's choice. We have to start getting back to our normal way of life.
