The hospitals are full, the positivity rate is the highest it has been, every infection is a chance for further mutations of this virus, masks are proven to work, mask mandates are proven to work and are, unfortunately, the only way to get some people to wear a mask. Why is the mandate even a question? I have worn a mask every single time I've left the house for the past 20 months and will continue to do so, but I will not enter any building that does not require masks to be worn. The anti-mask people are few but loud, pro-mask people tend to be quieter (perhaps the masks muffle our voices) but if any business is in doubt, worry no longer - our quiet masked turning away will lose you just as much money as any threats of an anti-mask boycott.
