No one is being forced to remove their face coverings, why should those of us who don't live in fear be forced to wear face coverings? Omicron is less lethal & studies have shown that those who have already been infected by COVID-19 cannot contract the virus again. Furthermore the virus is the size of 1 micron & unless N95 or equivalent masks are required this measure will merely be a placebo. I should not have to argue over my freedoms. I spend thousands in local stores monthly, if this mask mandate goes into affect and is enforced I will take my business to King George, St.Mary's or Calvert. I will not comply to a pointless decree that's only function is to coddle the fearful & impose the will of the government upon the people.
