Do each of you truly believe a mask mandate does anything to inhibit the spread of any virus? Do any of you truly believe that I or anybody else in this county need you to make medical decisions for us? I'll give the benefit of the doubt that your not dumb. It does leave me to wonder though what your angle is. Whatever it is I will not spend any money in any chuck county business that enforces this overreach, especially any business or organization any of you are involved with. I'll continue to make my own choices as to what's best for my health, like breathing freely, and encourage others to do the same, regardless of your overreaching unscientific political mandate
