I have a hearing loss and these masks have caused so much unnecessary interpretations, allegations and arguments in simple requests because either I don't understand or the other person doesn't understand. Either myself or the other person ends up by taking off the mask to speak. This has been a huge hardship on me. My anxiety level every time I need to enter a business has risen simply because I choose not to wear one. I can't go in without someone making a comment or asking me to leave. I am not a victim and I won't play one. I just want to go about my business freely. It makes no sense to continue to impose these restrictions on us. Some times, depends on who, where, what? If you are eating, are you shopping and eating or drinking then I can take it off..if not I gotta keep it on. please stop..
