Rueben....I've known you a long time. You can count the number of times I've written you on a matter on less than 5 fingers. That alone should evidence how serious I am about this mask mandate. Please don't do this. I've read the real science and we've known two things with precision since the start of this pandemic...1. There has never been a man-made cure for a virus, and 2. Masks don't work. I beg you to read the actual science and not be a part of the National mob mentality. We are killing small businesses, families, and our dear county with these I'll conceived policies. I beg you to stop this madness and be a real LEADER. Bill Hocker
