Dear Charles County Commissioners, As a Charles County resident and a lifelong Maryland resident, I have seen the impacts of overdevelopment on our state. The continued building has brought overcrowding in schools, traffic, crime, habitat loss, air pollution, storm runoff, and many more negative impacts to our beautiful land and waterways. I implore you to keep Southern Maryland's rural communities for agricultural use and to be conserved so they can be enjoyed for generations to come. Our future children deserve to have clean air, water, and the ability to enjoy the resources and natural beauty of our land. Thank you, Katie Suite
