Couple of things: 1. The Supreme Court ruled on this and I don't think they gave the right to violate The Constitution of the United States to state/county elected officials, that would be to take or limit citizens Second Amendment right away. 2. Until the Democratic brain trust has a way to take and prevent the flow of illegal guns flowing into this country and into criminals hands, don't assume you have any legal right to violate this Constitutional right from law abiding citizens. 3. New York tried this and it was an epic failure, check out that recent court case. 4. I suggest you take care of the business of Charles County and you might start with that discrimination case going on, with Commissioners. 5. How about you use your time to clean up the homeless situation, the violence, the lack of mental health care in Charles County, and speak up about illegal aliens to Annapolis. Thank you for your time and consideration of my views.
