If this bill was to pass it would do absolutely nothing but turn law abiding citizens with carry permits in to criminals. What right does the members of the board, who are supposed to be working for us, think they should have more rights then us. If the board members, think this bill will solve any issue or help with the rising gun violence in Charles county you need to get out from what every rock you have been living under. Criminals do not follow laws. This bill is a waste of time and tax payers money and needs to be voted NO.
