This bill does nothing to curb actual crime and everything to make criminals out of law-abiding, legally licensed and permitted citizens. Creating a confusing patchwork of prohibited gun-free zones is a clear violation of state-sanctioned wear and carry laws as well as a complete infringement of the God-given, Constitutionally protected right to defend oneself, family and property. What of those that live within these zones: are their guns now in violation of this ordinance? Meanwhile, convicted felons already prohibited from possessing firearms are roaming our streets unafraid and are repeatedly released on minimal bond for committing the same crimes over and over because THEY DON'T OBEY GUN LAWS. And why should a commissioner be exempt from the same ordinances they enact on the rest of us, when they are safely tucked away inside a building protected by armed security, while the rest of us are left to fend for ourselves, surrounded by criminals who care nothing for gun laws nor for our safety and our lives. We pay your salaries, therefore, you work for us, not the other way around. I am not asking, I am demanding that you reconsider this overreaching and, dare I say , illegal legislation.
