I am licensed to carry a firearm in Maryland with friends and relatives living in Frederick County and outlying areas thereof. This bill would criminalize possession of a firearm within 100-yards of a "place of public assembly," even with a Maryland Wear and Carry Permit, thus forcing me to travel through Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, adding extra miles, increased fuel costs and time wasted. Hopefully, those who came up with the bill will see that such an inconvenience and most likely illegal burden will either amend the bill to rectify this problem or better yet toss it in the trash can. Bruen was extremely clear that such antics won't be tolerated.
