This is in violation of my constitutional rights to own/carry a firearm. The fact that the commissioners themselves are exempt is contemptuous...why are they entitled to be exempt? This type of law is a prime example of leadership with the belief that they are better than others. If a citizen has to follow the rule of the law then why would they be exempt. The current situation with regard to racial issues, bullying and harassment has diminished my trust in these elected officials who I once supported. Our county needs ethical honest transparent leadership not what we currently are experiencing.
