Law-abiding citizens, and specifically those who have already received a conceal and carry permit, are exercising their second amendment right. How Oldis affect a law abiding Citizen if they are pulled over by a police officer, or happen to be within 100 feet of government building and stop by an officer? With the uptick in crime in Charles county, it's even more concerning that commissioners would lay out this type of legislation. It's also disheartening that in this proposed bill commissioners have the ability to conceal and carry, but no other law-abiding citizen has the same access. This seems unlawful and unconstitutional, and I am against this proposed bill in any form or fashion.
