I oppose this bill for several reasons, with legal details attached below. I am a veteran, an experienced law enforcement officer, and a qualified Firearms Instructor. Your bill would endanger the lives of hundreds of individuals who possess Maryland Handgun Permits issued by the State Police for well founded fear of personal injury or death. Over the past decade, I have trained numerous women who are victims of Domestic Violence, women (and some men) who have documented cases of violence directed against them by spouses, former lovers, and other disturbed individuals. That includes members of the LGBTQ community, Jews, Muslims, and other victims of racial hate. Your bill would NULLIFY their protection from violence by stripping them of their right to self defense across Charles County, as they work or travel for business or pleasure.
