I am firmly against this bill. Citizens who go through the legal process of obtaining a concealed carry permit are not the problem. This bill will ONLY apply to those doing things the legal way...criminals absolutely will not care around this bill. As an exemption to this restriction, the bill states: "(54) A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF CHARLES COUNTY COMMISSIONERS" The members of the Charles County Board of Commissioners should not be exempt from this. YOU ARE NOT SPECIAL. You should not be above your own law. Everyone who reads this comment, please ask yourself this question: "Why do the bureaucrats in power want to disallow normal citizens from exercising their right to conceal carry on County grounds, but still allow themselves to do so?" This is a true case of the saying "Rules for thee, but not for me." I totally disagree with this bill, especially when the people banning concealed carry carve out exemptions for themselves.
