As written this bill is incomplete at best and does not take into consideration simple things like driving, walking, or biking on Charles Street, Radio Station Road, Billingsley, etc while in lawful possession of a firearm. If implemented as written thousands of otherwise law-abiding people could be breaking the law just for transiting the streets of Charles County. Furthermore, it is extremely hypocritical to exempt the board of commissioners. I do not understand how your right to defend yourself has greater weight than any other citizen of Charles County.
