The I moved in it has been nothing but trouble getting things fixed in a brand new home. First when you turn the master bath on it would rain in the kitchen and it took 3 times to fix. I put in a work order for my wood floors to get fixed because they're peeling up , never got fixed. When having blinds put in I was told the measurements was so different from each other it was the worst he seen in this development. Not one person in Lennar has taking responsibility for this.
