One of the main selling points that attracted you me to this area is the level of quiet. Another strong selling point is the safety. I fear that developing and inviting swarms of people to be crammed into the area will negatively impact both. My son and I enjoy the rural environment and take full advantage of all it has to offer. If we wanted to live in a metropolis then we wouldn't have moved to this area. Everything doesn't need to be as congested as Waldorf...also, we have more than enough traffic as it is.
