Bryans Road is in need of leaders who care of about the rural aspect of this city. Unfortunately, the owner of Bryans Road Shopping Center doesn't reside in Charles County, so there is no care or concern about the quality of life out here. It's disheartening to see people simply collecting a check from this area while not investing any time and resources into it. I can imagine the many entities that are waiting to profit off of developing over here at our expense. We're already spending enough to maintain. I keep hearing people talk about Commercial jobs but there isn't anyone willing to work the ones that are available currently. You see how little employees are available to offer customer service in the business we do have. Please find another area to target. We're tired of the bait and switch tactics that we've witnessed for so many years.
