As a resident of bryans road for 7 yrs now. I have expected such more for charles county. As a previous resident of the neighboring city Accokeek as a child I recall bryans road had a movie theater where my friends I would go to on Tuesdays and Friday nights with our families. During the year my family was able to go grocery shopping for to multiple stores. The shopping center had bright lights and was always busy in a positive way. That's why when I had a chance to buy a home of my own near my family after living in VA for some time I jumped to purchase a home in bryans road. Since my purchase I have notice nothing but a down hill effect going on around me business closing and more houses going up. When more business should be coming down here. By now I should have to go to target in waldorf , brandywine or waldorf for a movie theater , an organic grocery store in VA or waldorf. This is sickness me to my core. So much money in the homes down here already but we don't have a strong enough business center to support it. Stop building more homes and put a youth center , give us a target and more business to allow these young kids to have their first jobs and to let off some of the stress off the parents wondering what their child is doing. Thank you for your time. I'm against any more homes being built until we get a real business center.
