We didn't move to this city years ago to experience another overcrowded city. The peace of Bryans Road has changed over the years due to many things. These front foot fees, property tax increases and assessments are driving the cost of our mortgages up. So many people have moved because they can't afford to sustain their simple lives due to the greed of developers who don't live here. Stop subjecting this city to these tactics for profit. Preserve the rural element of this area. The shopping center received a 2.5 Million Dollar face lift years ago and the owner will not bring quality businesses and restaurants to this area. We are tired...
