I have always enjoyed living near and shopping in LaPlata. In years past, it has been a great way to escape the hustle and crime of Waldorf. I see more and more being built on the backside of LaPlata and I am concerned LaPlata will become an extension of Waldorf. Please stop building so much and consider that bigger is not always better and that duplicating the same shopping that is 10 minutes up the road and the same density in population will just make more problems. The goal of LaPlata was to keep the small town appeal. That will be ruined with more building.
