I am not completely against the Bryans Road Sub-Area, but I have major concerns about the level of housing development proposed in the plan. In the past 20-30 years Charles County has focused primarily on building houses, townhouses, or apartments. As a result, we have become a bedroom community where people have to travel long distances to find work that will support the high cost of living in our county. Our county needs to provide incentives to businesses that pay good salaries to come to our county. Then more people could live and work in the county. It would also improve our tax base, so the individual taxpayer rate wouldn't be so high. Thank you for providing this forum for public comment on the plan.
