I have been in Charles County since I was 12 and my husband was born here. I have many worries about the future Charles County. I am embarrassed by the current commissioners on the board. For two commissioners, Patterson and Collins, to be so blind to what is a serious situation of power gone to commissioner Coates head, is ridiculous. Protecting her even after two investigations shows she did what has been charged on discrimination against employees. And now Patterson wants to take names for retaliation!!?!. Patterson, you have outraged so many. Fire Coates and put an impartial person in there who can do the job without judgements on an employees skin color. Its too bad Coates is the only one on the list to be removed right now. I would add Patterson and Collins too! I would like to commend Stewart and Bowling for bringing the corruption to light. Both were very brave for this and shows the degree of care they have for Charles County.
