I am for a bill like this. However, I don't believe that it should require 4 other commissioners to vote in favor of removal especially when at least one of them has willfully been involved in accepting campaign funds from one who should have already resigned. I believe that it should only require 3 votes at most and that the person whom they are voting to remove can not vote. Even then given the current situation it still will not likely be a fair/ untainted vote.
