

County Commissioners of Charles County

PROCLAMATION 2023-48

Law Day

WHEREAS, May begins today, and each year we recognize Law Day, a day to honor the role of law in the creation of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, Law Day is celebrated every May 1st to help the public understand the legal profession better and to celebrate the role of law in our society, according to the American Bar Association which began hosting Law Day events in the late 1950's following a proclamation by then-President Dwight D. Eisenhower; and

WHEREAS, this year, the theme for Law Day is "Cornerstones of Democracy: Civics, Civility and Collaboration." We invite all the people of the United States to join us in rebuilding trust in our institutions, respect for one another, and our willingness to collaborate to address the challenges that face our nation; and

WHEREAS, Law Day will be recognized by the Charles County Bar Association.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF CHARLES COUNTY, MARYLAND, do hereby proclaim May 1, 2023, Law Day in Charles County.
