

County Commissioners of Charles County

PROCLAMATION 2022-25

National Public Safety Telecommunicator Week

WHEREAS, the prompt arrival of appropriate emergency response resources at the scene of an emergency is essential to the welfare and safety of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, the safety of our emergency response personnel is dependent upon the timeliness and accuracy of information Public Safety Telecommunicators obtain from those who dial 911 to report an emergency; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the initial contact our citizens experience when they need police, fire or emergency medical services; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators provide a vital service for emergency responders by monitoring activities over the radio, providing them amplifying information and requested resources; and

WHEREAS, the dedication and professionalism of the Public Safety Telecommunicators of the Charles County Department of Emergency Services 911 Communications are essential components in Charles County's overall efforts to preserve life and property.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF CHARLES COUNTY, MARYLAND, do hereby proclaim the week of April 10-16, 2022 as National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week in Charles County, in honor of the men and women for their tireless efforts, diligence, compassion and professionalism to help keep our county and citizens safe.
