Senior affordable living is for sure lacking in Chares County as a whole. Not to mention any new developments for the Bryans Road area are needed. The population must grow for businesses to come. The western side of the community has been ignored/neglected for too long. I'm excited for what's to come to this side of the county hence why I purchased a new home in 2020 and contribute to over $11k per year in property taxes. I recommend Approval. I also represent Bryans Road newest community Preserve at Timber Ridge as I serve as the HOA President.
