After watching the 3/10/22 Open House Meeting for Bryans Road, many of us property owners that live in Bryans Road saw that our Commissioner Thomasina Coates invited the Applicant for this ZTA to a community meeting that we weren't invited to. To see that our Commissioner is more focused on serving people outside of the area (Prince George's County, McLean, VA and Annapolis) instead of those who actually live in Bryans Road. I'm opposed to this ZTA due to the current people living in the area being forced into a food dessert for other preferred agendas, we'd hate to see new employees burdened the way we are burdened.
