As Director of the Charles County Youth Orchestra I would like to protest against the 2025 budget cut to the Charles County Charitable Trust. The CCCT provides about half of our funding and allows us to continue our service to our students as well as the community. CCYO has performed for many organizations in Charles County such as the Southern MD Food Bank, the Maryland Veterans Museum, the Port Tobacco Historical Society, Kris Kringle and most recently the Division on Aging of the Charles County Government. In addition to these performances we produce a two week Chamber Music Festival (the only Chamber Music Festival in Southern Maryland) and have our regular concerts twice a year at Thomas Stone High School. Without the funding from the Charitable Trust we will have to cut back on all these activities. Please restore funding to the CCCT.
