If there were money to enforce the rules of the road, I would be in favor of the golf cart legislation. There are too many of these carts that have been driven illegally for years. Just last week I saw an eight or nine year old child driving a cart with his family happily on board with him. This kid was definitely not the holder of a learner's permit or a driver's permit. Some of the rental properties on the island come with a golf cart and are being driven recklessly by short term renters. Allocate money for the CCSO to send an officer to the island on a more regular and frequent basis to do enforcement and then I will be on board with this legislation.
