Pretty much anyone can be fired for ethics violations and malfeasance, even Congress. As employees of the residents of Charles County, Commissioners should be subject to the same rules as everyone else. It is imperative that we have a means to remove a sitting commissioner who violates the rules other county employees are bound by. When bad behavior goes unpunished, corruption takes hold and that person isn't incentivized to correct their behavior or do better. It is shameful that taxpayers are on the hook for millions in fees for one commissioner, that another who broke the rules has gone unpunished, that they are still allowed to make decisions to spend our tax dollars, and there is nothing we can do to remove them. I demand that the board pass legislation to allow removal of a sitting commissioner.
