Will you listen to the citizens? Will you understand this not just about you? There have been many instances when removing an elected official was warranted. What are you afraid of? Being held accountable? You already are. And most citizens are aware. If you are living up to the full promise of your duties, this should not be a problem. Just because another county doesn't do it, that's a laughable excuse. Stand up, do what's being demanded by your citizens. If it's such a bad idea, it will be voted down. So what do you have to lose?
