MY Comments - Ken Kraushaar, Nanjemoy

irt Mr. Deron Tross Comments, I am in full agreement on the power of the elected Sheriff, tho I oppose Charter - If CHARTER passes in 2024, that power is already there - including Police Powers on Legislation. It is an incredible expansion of Government and worse, it is a centralization of power to the Executive. The May 9th Charter Board Meeting was outstanding, as debate really occurred. Citizens are proud of the work you folks are doing, but as I wrote in my LTE on the INDY, the process was fouled. I also tried to share that a lot of time and energy is being wasted that could be doing other things, better things.

The most sane thing, we ever heard from this board, was when Chairman Greg asked the big question - Why Not INC Waldorf? Its a WIN WIN - I dont know if this Charter Board Can write anything in, but Citizen Carlos suggested coming legislation to INCORPORATE Waldorf. And lets be frank, Waldorf is where the cops are needed most, let them create a solution for crime, or at least try.. and Waldorf could be a City of the Future, think Dubai - get that SMRT rail dropping down, open a Casino maybe?

The Farm Folk comments and recommendations were interesting... but we have never attempted to repair this Frederick County Charter, (still in the docs PDF code history, but whatever) -- tho edited - the process was broke and its not your fault. Thank you all for your service. v/r (very respectfully) Ken
