I am against CCSO implementing a curfew or increasing arrests for nuisances on July 4, and afterward. This would only increase tensions and violence in our neighborhoods and contribute to the disproportionate detainment of young black people. Studies show that youth incarceration does not reduce delinquent behavior but instead impedes young people's success in education and employment, and that it does lasting damage to young people's health and wellbeing. The only proven way to prevent youth delinquency is better resources for them and their families, better quality education, and restorative practices. Shame on the Commissioners for buying into disproven, right wing "tough on crime" rhetoric and losing sight of the well-being of our young people.
