As a Charles County non-profit with a mission to reconnect people to the land through education, preservation, and cultivation, we are in support of the Agritourism Bill again to be submitted as part of Charles County's Legislative package for this year's State Session. As farmers increasingly look to ways to preserve their farm and make a living, agri-tourism is more and more an important part of a diversified operation. We ask that you move this forward to the state legislature. Thank you.
