As President of the Charles County Literacy Council, I can see how difficult it is to manage a non-profit with limited funds. Every decision our Board makes is based on how much it costs and we have to abandon good ideas as too expensive for us. The Charitable Trust needs a bigger allocation than $784,100 to help us and other struggling non-profits here. A million dollars would better help the neediest residents of our county. Those we serve, the illiterate and semi-literate are among those needy residents. Kindly increase the Charitable Trust budget to the requested $1,000,000.
