I do not support mask mandates. Unfortunately COVID is here to stay and we need to learn to live with it. We have lived with the flu for decades without mask mandates. Not only are they uncomfortable in general but more importantly some people have a hard time breathing in masks, people with hearing disabilities have a hard time understanding people in masks and masks are difficult for little children and some with learning and other disabilities. If someone is worried about getting sick they should utilize other methods available for purchasing goods.
