The only reason this is even an issue is because an unhinged ex-reality TV personality, who conned himself into the White House, convinced his mindless followers that a real disease was not real, just before he secretly got it and knowingly spread it to a lot of people. Had Trump said from the start that it was the patriotic duty for every American to wear masks and be vaccinated, only a few fringe nut-jobs on each side would dispute it. We all need to just wear the damn masks!
