I don't believe masks make a very big difference. I belong to an organization that recently had an outbreak of covid and we all wore masks. It didn't seem to make any difference. Making a law to require masks all the time is just control of the masses. Who knows the long term effects this is going to have on our children. Mentally is very depressing. You can't see people smile, can't understand what people are saying, you're always yelling to make sure people hear you, and nobody's friendly anymore.
